Main trustee responsibilities include:

- Support and advise on the development of LOROS' purpose, vision, goals and activities.
- Approve operational strategies and policies and monitor and evaluate their implementation.
- Oversee financial plans and budgets and monitor and evaluate progress.

We particularly welcome applications from individuals with significant experience in either charity fundraising/income generation or law.

The roles are voluntary and unremunerated.

If you would like to arrange an informal discussion about the role please contact LOROS Chief Executive, Rob Parkinson, on robparkinson@loros.co.uk

To apply, please send your CV and a brief covering note setting out your interest in the role to Becca Stevens rebeccastevens@loros.co.uk by Friday 29th March 2024.

LOROS wants to ensure that the profile of its volunteer and paid workforce reflects the diverse communities of Leicester, Leicestershire and Rutland. We welcome applicants from the diverse communities we serve.
