

LOROS Winter 21 "Space" Quiz

We are delighted to bring you the latest edition of the LOROS quiz, which this time is themed around "Space".

This is the first edition of the quiz that can be entered either using the tradition paper quiz sheet OR our new online form which has been introduced. Both quizzes contain the same questions and are simply in different formats to ensure they can be accessed by a wide audience at this challenging time.

Terms & Conditions

- All entries must be received by the 20th January 2022. Entries submitted after this date will not be eligible for a chance of a prize but the entry fee of £1 will still be taken
- All winners will be notified by the 10th February 2022 using the contact details provided at point of entry / submission
- Late / missed entries will not be eligible for a refund and the £1 entry fee will simply be considered as a donation. LOROS accept no responsibility for entries not received
- The entrant whom enters their details at the point of purchase / or submission of the answers will be the person considered eligible for a prize
- Multiple entries may be made per person, but each entry will require another donation of £1 or more. There is no limit to the number of family members or friends whom you can encourage to enter too!
- The online and paper quiz will be identical in format and the questions contained in them.
- Each method of entry holds the same likelihood of being drawn as the winner. No priority will be given to either entry method
- There are 3 cash prizes consisting of 1 x £50 and 2 x £25 prizes. All 3 winners could be from paper entries, all 3 could be from online entries or a mixture of each
- In the event of a tie (i.e. the same amount of correct answers) a random draw will be made to determine the winner
- All entries are manually marked to ensure that any misspellings will be awarded if they are close enough to the correct answers
- The judge's decision is always final in any event of a misspelling
- There are no age restrictions to the competition
- Online entries will have the option to have the answers emailed to them after the competition has closed. No instant answers or feedback will be provided to online entries
- By entering this competition, you are accepting all Terms & Conditions listed above