Professional Compassionate Collaborative
Trust Focussed Accountable

Took time out of their day to speak to a patient about a hobby that they both share. This was noticed by many staff members. Just wonderful, it made him very happy

She has the most incredible way with patients, so caring, compassionate and soothing to them and their families. It is a pleasure to watch her interact with them and see the impact that she has on them

I worked with her for a shift and she demonstrated kindness and compassion to all the patients in a lovely manner through the way she communicated

Managed to put a smile on patients faces and put them at ease with her gentle communication and humour

I observed her to be very responsive caring and kind with patients staff and students

Always steps up and takes responsibility. She makes herself accountable because she is professional through and through.

The compassion, optimism and kindness shown to patients was always present
